Welcome to East Grinstead Hockey Club Est. 1897

Sunday 21st November 2021

On behalf of the club, welcome to Surbiton Hockey Club and their Ladies 1st XI for this rearranged Vitality Women's Premier League fixture at Saint Hill. We would like to thank umpies David Howell & Rebecca Woodcock and Technical Delegate, Harry Stickland for their time today.

Last weekend saw the Ladies 1st XI score 7 unanswered goals against Birmingham with Sophie Bray netting her first hattrick of the season. The Ladies sit second in the league as we approach the Christmas break.

The Men's 1st XI secured their first 3 points of the season against Exeter last weekend and travel to Durham this weekend and we wish Dave Beckett and the team the very best of luck.

Finally, we say goodbye, good luck and thank our two Malaysian internationals, Noni and Jay who return to play for Malaysia in Korea in the Pan Asian games.

The Ladies continue to appreciate the support of the junior section in providing the all important ball patrol.

Vitality Women's Hockey League Premier Division 13th November 2021

Two early goals saw Beeston spoil the Clifton Robinsons party as a landmark day for the Bristol-based club ended in defeat. Clifton were celebrating their 500th top-flight match, the first side to reach the milestone, but fell behind after just three minutes as Sophie Robinson tapped in the opener. The hosts doubled their lead five minutes later courtesy of Lucy Millington and though both goalscorers later received cards, Beeston comfortably held on for all three points. The victors now have a four-point cushion in the top six following their second win in three games and have closed to within two points of Clifton in fifth.

Leaders Hampstead & Westminster maintained their 100 per cent record with a routine 3-0 home win over struggling Swansea. The bottom-of-the-table visitors held firm through the opening quarter in the capital but their stubborn resistance was broken on the stroke of half-time as Emily Douglas slotted home from a penalty corner.

A strong third quarter then put the unbeaten hosts out of reach, with a fine goal from Fran Tew doubling the advantage before Sarah Robertson sealed her side's ninth successive victory on 48 minutes.

Sophie Bray bagged a 15-minute hat-trick as East Grinstead ran riot at University of Birmingham, coming home with a 7-0 victory to keep hold of second spot. Fatin Sukri's 14th-minute opener set the visitors on their way before Bray's quickfire treble stretched the lead in style. Nuraini Rashid added a fifth and Ellie Rayer's late brace added further gloss to the scoreline on a tough afternoon for the students.

Elsewhere, a Hollie Pearne-Webb brace helped Wimbledon to a 5-1 win over Buckingham, with Olivia Chilton, Fiona Crackles and Fiona Burnet also on target for the third-placed side.

And rounding off a good day for home teams, with four of the five hosts winning, were Surbiton as they overcame Loughborough Students 4-2 thanks to goals from Georgie Twigg, Meg Douthwaite, Darcy Bourne and Sarah Evans – Enya Collier and Kirby Harris netted late consolations for the visitors.

Results

- Beeston 2-0 Clifton Robinsons
- Hampstead & Westminster 3-0 Swansea
- Surbiton 4-2 Loughborough Students
- University of Birmingham 0-7 East Grinstead
- Wimbledon 5-1 Buckingham
