Welcome to East Grinstead Hockey Club Est. 1897

Saturday 12th February 2022

Welcome to Saint Hill and to the second half of the season.

On behalf of the club, we welcome Hampstead and Westminster Ladies first team for our second home game in the Top6.

Following an away win at Beeston and a disappointing home defeat to Wimbledon, our focus is now on a good performance against second placed H&W at 4:00pm. While both teams will be without several players away with England's Pro League squad in Argentina, a hard and competitive game will be expected.

Welcome and thank you to umpires David Howell and Rob Jenkins as well Match Official Stephen Downham.

The club would also like to acknowledge and congratulate Isobel Field, Josh Barrott and Ollie Lander on their selection to the England under 18 squads and we wish Ellie Rayer, Alex Malzer and Laura Unsworth the very best against Argentina in the Pro-League.

Vitality Women's Hockey League Premier Division Roundup 12th February 2022

The game of the weekend in the Vitality Women's Premier Division came at Hampstead & Westminster as they were held to a thrilling 3-3 draw by Clifton Robinsons.

Hampstead, who were one of three teams level on points at the top of the table going into Saturday, were trailing 3-2 before Melanie's Wilkinson's 67th-minute goal brought them back on level terms.

East Grinstead also went into the weekend joint-top, along with Hampstead and Surbiton but their title hopes suffered a blow with a 3-0 reverse at home to Wimbledon. Katie Maxey opened the scoring for Wimbledon in only the second minute and Grinstead, despite their excellent recent form, were never able to recover.

Elsewhere in the top-6, Beeston fought back to earn a draw at high-flying Surbiton through a penalty corner from Cerys Millerm after Maddie Long had put the hosts in front.

The third draw this weekend in the top-flight took place at Swansea, who were held at home by Holcombe. The visitors led through Leisa Randall but Beth Wood's 55th-minute strike earned Swansea what could be a crucial draw in their battle to avoid relegation.

University of Birmingham are the best placed of the bottom five courtesy of their 3-1 win at second-bottom Buckingham.
